Keynote Speaker: Dr. Lisa Cartwright
Professor of Visual Arts, Communication and Science Studies at UC San Diego

Known for her work on visual culture and the body in feminist science and technology studies, and working at the intersections of art and medical history and critical theory, Dr. Cartwright is the author of books including Screening the Body: Tracing Medicine’s Visual Culture and Practices of Looking: An Introduction to Visual Culture (co-author Marita Sturken). Recent essays consider the landscape photography of photographers including Catherine Opie, the history of film technology, and the visual cultures of viruses. She directs the Catalyst Lab, an initiative that supports collaborations across art, science and technology with emphases in feminist and critical theory and in experimental documentary practice. The lab is home to the online journal Catalyst: Feminism, Theory and Technoscience and supports collaboration with the FemTechNet, an international network of feminist scholars, artists, and teachers of technology, science, feminism, and digital media.

Featured Speaker: Dr. Sander Gilman
Distinguished professor of the Liberal Arts and Sciences & Professor of Psychiatry at Emory University. A cultural and literary historian, he is the author or editor of over eighty books. His Obesity: The Biography appeared with Oxford University Press in 2010; his most recent edited volume, The Third Reich Sourcebook (with Anson Rabinbach) was published with the University of California Press in 2013. He is the author of the basic study on the visual steronotyping of the mentally ill, Seeing the Insane, published by John Wiley and Sons in 1982 (reprinted: 1996) as well as the standard study of Jewish Self-Hatred, the title of his Johns Hopkins University Press monograph of 1986.

Featured Speaker: Dr. Stefanie Speanburg
A graduate of the Smith College School for Social Work, Dr. Speanburg has also graduated a three-year residency in the psychotherapeutic treatment of trauma and attachment related mental illnesses at Metropolitan Counseling Services. In 2012, she completed a psychoanalytic psychotherapy fellowship at the Emory Psychoanalytic Institute and earned her doctorate in Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies as well as a certificate in Psychoanalytic Studies at Emory University. She teaches psychoanalytic theory for the China-America Psychoanalytic Alliance (CAPA) and continues to co-teach courses in Theories of Object Relating at the Emory University Psychoanalytic Institute.
